

My Faith Story

In 1,000 words, share your faith walk story. Give a brief background then get right into the drama episode of your story. The outline below will guide you.

Submit your faith walk story to: faithstories@lostandfoundalongtheway.com

The Camino: Personal geography and history.

- Share briefly some of your personal history. Include just enough to help the reader understand your big story and its drama moments.
- Tell your story. Start right at the big episode in your story. Describe enough of the details to let the reader “feel” the drama and where you were at in your life at the time.
- Where were you at during this time in your life? Your thoughts? Desires? Attitudes?
- Where was God at that time?

My Camino: What did you say to God? What did He communicate to you during that time?

- What did your conversations with God sound like?
- What words did you use? Where were your thoughts centered?
- What do you believe was His response?
- What, if any, God moments did you experience?
- What is He saying to you today about the drama your faith journey experienced?

Our Camino: What insight did you gain? What lesson can you share to help others?

- Provide a brief explanation on what you learned.
- How might that lesson help someone else who is going through a similar trial?
- Capture this wisdom, born of struggle, in a simple sentence.
